(8845) 18. What in your opinion were the most valuable aspects of this course?

I enjoyed how the professor was able to speak in French for almost the whole time. It really allowed me to get a grasp of being fully emerged in the language and allowed me to think more about the complexity of it all.

learning the basics of French that were at the perfect pace and were explained thoroughly when questions arose

Zoom breakout rooms

the way she taught was very organized

The compositions were the most valuable because they gave me more time to thoroughly think out my answers and make sure I was using proper language.

breaking into a separated group for discussion

(8846) 19. What if any changes to this course would you suggest?

I would not change anything, I though that this course was very well put together.

n/a

The Pearson textbook website is archaic and nearly inoperable

less homework on MFL

I think the skit is a little harder to complete this year because we are doing everything virtually, it may have been easier to do a solo video project in French (zoom can be finicky sometimes while trying to film!)

none

The online platform is not (in my opinion) well suited for language learning.
